Debate on Amendments: A motion to follow these rules for voting on the amendments for marriage. Three persons will be allowed to speak for each amendment and three (3) against. Presbyters will be allowed two (2) minutes to speak. The Moderator may allow observers at the meeting to speak after commissioners if there is time available. [Colored paddles will be available at the Stated Clerk's table—for or against. There will be one line].

Presbyters will hand in one ballot with votes on all amendments once debate has ended on all amendments. The votes will be counted by a team of presbyters appointed by the moderator.
