

Director of Choirs
First Presbyterian Church, Waterloo, Iowa

First Presbyterian Church of Waterloo is looking for a part-time Director of Choirs (10-12 hours per week) to lead its choirs in worship. We are looking for a person with strong Christian faith to prepare and direct the Adult Sanctuary Choir, Celebration Ringers (handbell choir) and Joyful Noise, ensuring that all groups regularly participate in worship. Proficiency in conducting, piano skills and rehearsal techniques of vocalists, instrumentalists and bell ringers will be essential. This person will need to work well with others and establish good working relationships with musicians in the church and community.

First Presbyterian Church of Waterloo is a welcoming, supportive, smaller sized church with a strong history of music. This individual will work with the pastor and the Worship and Music Team to support the church choirs.

Responsibilities of this position include:

- Works with pastor, organist and other leaders to plan and perform music for the worship services of the church (services include Christmas Eve, Easter and Holy Week services)
- Prepares and directs the Adult Sanctuary Choir, Celebration Ringers and Joyful Noise
- Selects and supervise section leaders for the Adult Sanctuary Choir
- Works with the church organist to coordinate service music
- Utilizes the music program budget in conjunction with the Worship and Music Team ensuring fiscal responsibility and good stewardship
- Selects, organizes and maintains music for the church music library
- Works with the pastor and Worship and Music Team to arrange and oversee regular and required maintenance and renovations of all music instruments

Interested persons should send or email letter of interest and resume ASAP to:
