

Organist
First Presbyterian Church, Waterloo, Iowa

First Presbyterian Church of Waterloo is seeking a talented musician that is proficient in playing a church pipe organ. This person should also be proficient in accompaniment (piano and organ) of choirs during worship and rehearsal. The organist will provide voluntaries and service music for First Presbyterian Church and accompany the choir when requested by the Director of Choirs. This person will need to work well with others and establish good working relationships with musicians in the church and community.

First Presbyterian Church of Waterloo is a welcoming, supportive, smaller sized church with a strong history of music. This individual will work with the pastor, Director of Choirs, and the Worship and Music Team to support the church choirs.

Responsibilities of this position include:

- Works with pastor and Director of Choirs to plan and perform music for the worship services of the church (services include Christmas Eve, Easter and Holy Week services)
- Prepares voluntaries and service music for the worship services at First Presbyterian Church
- Informs the Director of Choirs and pastor of maintenance and repair needs on the organ

Interested persons should send or email letter of interest and resume ASAP to:
First Presbyterian Church, 505 Franklin Street, Waterloo, IA 50701 or amy@1stpresby.org

More information about the church is found on the website www.1stpresby.org