

Youth Advisory Delegates are elected to the annual meetings of General Assembly and Synod.

Youth Advisory Delegates for the General Assembly must be between the ages of 17 and 23 on the day the General Assembly convenes.

The Youth Advisory Delegate for the Synod must be a commissioned church member under the age of twenty-four at the time his/her term of service commences.

Youth Advisory Delegates sit in on the general meetings and committees. They have the opportunity to speak out on issues of concern to them. They have an official vote on the issues in committees. They also have fellowship with each other.

Youth Advisory Delegates are expected to attend an orientation session before attending and to report back to Presbytery after serving.

The process toward becoming a Youth Advisory Delegate is:

1. Fill out the information and answer the questions. Answer questions in your own words and submit form online to the Presbytery Office.
2. The committee will make its recommendation and place those names in nomination to be officially elected by the Presbytery.

Date:

Your Name: _____ Date of Birth _____

Address: _____ City & State: _____

Zip: _____

Phone: (____) _____

E-Mail: _____

Home Church and City:

I am applying to be a Youth Advisory Delegate to (check one):

General Assembly Synod No Preference

1. Why do you want to be a Youth Advisory Delegate?

2. How have you participated in the life of the church? (especially since you have become a teenager.)

3. What has your participation in these areas meant to you?

4. Briefly describe what you feel are major issues facing the Church today.

5. If you became a Youth Advisory Delegate, how do you think you could share your experiences with others in your church and presbytery when you return home?

6. Have you previously been a Youth Advisory Delegate? Yes No

If yes, what year? _____

Check whether you attended Synod or General Assembly

Thank you for your interest in being a Youth Advisory Delegate.